Don Hlus

Classical Guitar

Don Hlus (B. Mus., M.A.) has performed throughout Southwestern British Columbia as a soloist as well as a chamber musician, including performances with members of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, the Vancouver Opera Orchestra, the CBC Radio Orchestra, and the Borealis String Quartet. Although his formal training was focused on the classical guitar, Don's musical interests extend to include a wide variety of music styles, including acoustic finger-style, jazz, world, Flamenco, and Celtic music.

Don first studied jazz composition & arranging and jazz guitar at Capilano College (now Capilano University). He then attended the University of British Columbia where he was one of two in Western Canada to first receive a Bachelor of Music degree in classical guitar performance, studying under the guidance of Michael Strutt. Post-graduate studies were with the Canadian guitarist Harold Micay.

Don Hlus was a member of the music faculty at Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU) from 1993 to 2019 and served as Chair of the Music Department from 2012-2018. He was also the Director of Guitar at KPU and Founder and Artistic Director of the Fraser Valley Acoustic Guitar Festival. After twenty-six years working within the confines of an academic environment, he is enjoying the freedom to devote his time to music projects that assist emerging guitarists in developing the business side of their music career.

Woodwinds

James Kalyn is a diverse and highly experienced musician. He is a soloist, orchestral and chamber musician on both clarinet and saxophone, a conductor of orchestra, band, and jazz ensemble, and an arranger and composer. He also performs on flute and bassoon. An Associate Professor at Mount Allison University in New Brunswick, Canada (www.mta.ca), Kalyn can be heard performing regularly in the region as clarinetist with the highly successful woodwind quintet Ventus Machina (www.ventusmachina.com), and in recitals. In recent years he has become very active as an arranger and composer of music, bringing a lifetime of experience to the craft. Samples of his playing and arranging are found on his website, www.jameskalyn.ca. James Kalyn is also a conductor of band, orchestra, and jazz ensemble. His love of the mechanical has also led him to train as an instrument repairman.

Kalyn has been a clarinetist with numerous professional orchestras. As a concert saxophonist he has performed throughout the United States and Canada, as well as in Argentina, China and Japan. He has played and toured extensively with The Cleveland Orchestra and is heard on solo, ensemble and chamber music recordings. His solo recordings include 6 Standard Saxophone Sonatas, Brilliance and Glazunov Concerto. Chamber music recordings include Ventus Machina's In the Weeds (2017), Roots (2021), and Marcher à l'infini (2022). Kalyn trained at the Eastman School of Music (Doctor of Musical Arts), Michigan State University (BMus in woodwind performance) and Western University (BMus performance).

Maria Fuller

Chamber Ensembles

Canadian conductor, Maria Fuller, is a rising star on the international conducting scene. Hailed as an artist of "subtle control, careful focus, and thorough professionalism," by the Chronicle Journal of Thunder Bay, and as "fiery and dynamic," by The Walleye Magazine, Maria demonstrates unparalleled energy and infectious joy in her music-making. Admired for her diversity and breadth of abilities, Maria performs internationally as a conductor, pianist, and trumpeter. She is also an acclaimed vocal coach, award-winning composer, and sought-after arranger.

With the prophesied words born conductor ringing in her ears, Maria went from holding a baton for the first time in the Fall of 2017 to representing North America in La Maestra International Conducting Competition for Female Conductors in Paris in only two years. While training as a conductor in Cincinnati from 2017 to 2019, she was immediately invited by the Vancouver, Edmonton, Winnipeg, and Thunder Bay symphonies to audition as Assistant Conductor. In addition, Fuller was selected to compete in international competitions in Portugal and Turkey, was awarded the David Efron 7-week Conducting Fellowship at the Chautauqua Institute, NY, and became the Resident Conductor and Chorus Director of the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra. This year, in addition to guest conducting in Calgary, San Francisco, Mexico City, and Saskatoon, Maria continues to arrange and compose for the orchestra.

Maria was an active participant in the Saskatchewan Provincials, and FCMF National Music Festivals and looks forward to giving back to the community. She holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano from McGill University, a MM in Piano, an Artist Diploma in Operatic Coaching, and a MM in Orchestral Conducting, from the College-Conservatory of Music (CCM).
